

"Reimagine Your Life"

Ronalda Sullivan

Ronalda Sullivan is the founder and CEO of Dream Differently®. As a certified personal and executive life coach, speaker, and author, she specializes in resiliency. It is important for women who are navigating major life transitions or disappointments to reimagine their life. This led her to create her company Dream Differently®

Ronalda enjoys helping women reframe their understanding of disruption and how it pulls a new version of us from us. An international speaker who loves to share her journey to Dream Differently® globally in places like the Kingdom of Cambodia where she embraces every opportunity to encourage and empower women. Her true passion is igniting others through transparent conversations that transform whether they reside on the East Coast or East Asia.

Ronalda is also an international author. Her 30-Day journal called "Reimagine, Transform Your Tomorrow", is published in two languages and helps women explore a rollercoaster of emotions with a goal of reframing their mindset. She encourages clients to reimagine their right-now because that is truly what it means to dream differently. A single mother of three, Ronalda especially understands challenges women may face when the life they now have may be completely different than the life they imagined. As a mother of a son with a disability, Ronalda is also a passionate advocate who believes in creating an inclusive world.

Ronalda's life has been a series of indescribable experiences such as living and working in countries like England, Turkey, and the Netherlands to locally in the U.S. at the Pentagon. With more than 30 years of military and federal service experience, Ronalda thrives on improving women's outlook on life. With the Dream Differently® experience, results are outcomes better than they could have asked or imagined.
